Board Reports

Treasury

Brielle Stanley reported that all is well. Just a reminder - use the Guild's P.O. BOX for any mailed payments: P.O. Box 40056/Indianapolis, IN 46240. Make checks payable to the Christamore House Guild. Expense reimbursement forms can be mailed to the P.O. Box, or e-mailed to bhodapp@me.com.

Committee Updates

Book and Author Luncheon

- Kate Broadbent and Dominique Parkinson reported that Book and Author Luncheon tickets will be available for purchase by the end of the month. Active members are urged to purchase their tickets as soon as they receive the email, to guarantee the best seating.

Book and Author Luncheon Sponsorship

- Morgan McGill and Tonya Sullivan reported that the committee has secured approximately $63,000 in sponsorship/ad sales. They are busy securing ad artwork and invoices, and will be meeting with the printer soon.

Family Unity Night

- This committee has had to pivot due to Covid, and successfully held a staff appreciation luncheon at the House. They plan to make this a reoccurring event.

Scholarship

- Denise Cook reported that the Marge Kroeger Award deadline is March 1.

New Members

- Kate Olivier reported that new members planned a successful Valentine's Day party for the seniors. 27 individuals were in attendance.
- If you know any new prospective members, please forward their contact information. The May meeting will be a social event to bring prospective members to.

Please forward your 2022-2023 committee preference sheet to Kate ASAP.

Website/ Database/Directory

- Liz Mckee is continuing to update the website. There will be a link on the website to purchase B&A books.

Meeting adjourned. Next general meeting March 2, 2022 at 9:30 AM at Saks at the Fashion Mall (this is tentative; please check your email for updates). Please email secretary@christamoreguild.org if you are unable to attend.
